OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

No Flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and [illegible] to the [illegible] the brave,
Whose [illegible] the Country you [illegible] must save.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1865.

No Terms with Rebels.

This expression is being used in some quarters by the Union press, as if fears were entertained that at this late day the rebellion was about to be dignified by being treated with formally by the National Government. We have never heard any thing that justified such a supposition. The war has been prosecuted until they are utterly and irremediably defeated. They have one, only recourse, to lay down their arms and surrender, or disband and go home in peace. No treating with is contemplated, no "reconstruction is expected," as all that remains for the Southern people to do, is to once more, as of old, exercise the rights of States in the Union, while the leaders will be amenable to the law for their guilty treason.

In the meantime, we prepare to have faith in the wisdom that rules the country; to trust it in confidence, hoping that the result to be achieved by moderation and kindness, where they can be exercised, will be to bind up the bleeding wounds; to heal the hatred and jealousy that have heretofore existed, and replace it with a mutual respect and regard that shall make us soon one nation in spirit and fact. There is a bitterness we do not care to conceal, that we entertain towards all who have plotted, excited or aided the dastard act of murder attempting to destroy the Government with its Executive. For all such we have no thought of mercy, be they whom they may. Let no efforts be spared to hunt out the remotest conspirator and let the vengeance of the Nation be satisfied to the full.

FROM THE SANTIAM MINES.—We have been furnished the results of an assay made by Messrs. E. W. Tracy & Co., of a specimen of rock lately taken from the White Bull lode, in the Santiam mines, by Mr. McDonald, its discoverer. This specimen was found on the ground owned by the "Santiam Company" down the mountain about 1,000 feet south of the discovery. The ledge there is eight feet wide, with a center rim about one foot wide of sulphurets of lead and iron, which proves to be also rich in both gold and silver, according to the figures following: There was 97 20-100dths ounces of silver per ton, and 2 43-100dths ounces of gold. Value of silver, $125 38; gold, $50 23; total value, $176 61.

This return shows the best for the value of the ledge of any ever made, as the rock was found near the surface, and though such rock would be difficult to work on account of the base metals being so abundant, still there is every reason to believe that on sinking deeper a permanent silver ledge will be developed. We know that such a prospect would create an excitement at Owyhee, and it loses no value by being near home. We hope to see it developed by all the necessary means and energy.

BOISE ITEMS.—We have the Idaho World of April 9.

Flour was commanding 60 cts. per pound, and scarce at that. Quite an excitement existed among certain classes, as to the scarcity of provisions, but it was thought the stock on hand would last until supplies were received.

The bare ground was not visible at that date. Snow laid still at great depth, and the weather had been very cold but was moderating.

The Potter Troupe was expected soon, to supply amusement for the people of the Basin.

Gen. McCaryer had been heard from, he had disposed of considerable ground, and had three quartz mills on the way out.

THE OREGON DAILY MAIL.—The Sacramento Union, in a long article upon the importance of continuing the daily mail from California through Oregon, gives a correct history of the old mail arrangements when we were favored with, at most, weekly visits of mail matter, and does full justice to the wants and requirements of the north coast. Speaking of the probability of the discontinuance of the daily mail route for want of a bid the Postmaster-General will consider, it says:

After giving the people of Northern California and Oregon a daily mail for four years, to reduce it to a weekly, or even to a semi-weekly service, would be almost as unjust as to deprive them altogether. The route which thus stands in danger of being discontinued is of as much importance to the Pacific coast, in proportion to the length, as the Overland Daily Mail Line, and at the cost which so troubles the Postmaster General, is no more expensive. Seven hundred miles of such a route, at three hundred thousand dollars per annum, compares favorably with the route of nineteen hundred miles, from Placerville to Atchinson, at one million dollars. The Oregon line, proportionately, is probably a more difficult and expensive one than the latter, especially when it is considered that the former carries newspapers and other printed matter, while the Overland Mail contract requires the transportation of letters only. We trust that the claims of so great a portion of the Pacific coast will not be lightly regarded by the authorities of the Post Office Department, and that the daily mail on the Oregon line is not to be interrupted or reduced.

Last September, when legal tenders were not worth over forty cents on the dollar, the California Stage Company took the contract for another year at $300,000. At their present rate, the sum of $200,000 exceeds the amount they then bid, and it is to be hoped they will consider the sum of $200,000 remunerative enough to continue the service. That company have executed their part of the contract in a manner the most creditable and satisfactory, and we would prefer to see them reap future benefits as a consequence.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—The procession yesterday was three miles in length, and contained near 15,000 people. The arrangements were necessarily made in great haste, but everything went off satisfactory, and great credit is due to Col McKenzie, Grand Marshal of the day.

W. H. Davis and Jesse Hutrick were arrested at Pachecoville, Contra Costa county, charged with proposing three cheers for the man who killed Lincoln. They have been handed over to Gen. McDowell, who will mete out to them the proper punishment under military law.

Last evening Jas. Lyons, special police at Gilbert's Museum, attempted to shoot his wife, and supposing he had accomplished his murderous object, shot himself through the left lung, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. He is supposed to have been either intoxicated or laboring under a temporary derangement of the mind. It is reported that they have had frequent quarrels on political subjects—Lyons accusing his wife of being a secessionist.

Legal tenders, to day 72. Gold variously quoted from 148 down to 150, and reported that one dispatch quoted it at 135, closing heavy.

MARKETS.—Flour, there is an improved jobbing demand today, but prices remain unchanged. We note sales of uninspected Chili, duty paid, [illegible] sup. do, in sks, $11 [illegible]; Oregon, $13 75@$14; extra do, $14 50@$15; California superfine, $14 50; extra do, $15 50, and Napa family, $15 00. Wheat—the receipts are more liberal, but the market remains inactive. Operations range from $2 [illegible] and [illegible]. Barley, [illegible] sales of 1,500 sacks. Bay feed, [illegible] $1 [illegible] and Chili, 40 [illegible] private terms. Price [illegible] downward. Sales of two or three small cargoes at $16@$17. The wool market was unsettled and lower under the unsettled accounts from the East. Sales of 50,000 lbs. since our last are reported at 19½ and 21½ for number one. The inside price today for 10,000 pounds inferior in quality, range from $14 to $15. Bulk of the receipts are going into the warehouse.

DATES TO APRIL 20.

Funeral Obsequies of the President at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The solemn funeral rites and obsequies of the late President, Abraham Lincoln, took place today in the Capital. Never was greater fealty to the memory of the illustrious dead ever demonstrated in the annals of civilization. Dawn was ushered in by the booming of minute guns from the forts and stations surrounding the City at every point. The people began to assemble in the vicinity of the Executive Mansion, which was almost entirely draped in crape, as also were all the public buildings and many private residences in the vicinity. All over the city the business houses and private residences were closed. Emblems of mourning appeared in every corner and house and in every window.

The citizens poured forth by thousands into the streets, and by 10 o'clock they were in many places impassible. Pennsylvania Avenue from Willard's Hotel to the White House presented one dense mass of people, while the adjoining streets for half a mile in every direction, were filled with military companies.

Trains were bringing hundreds every hour. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the military escort formed a line on Pennsylvania Avenue, the left resting on Fifteenth Street. The escort consisted of two regiments of infantry, two battalions of cavalry, eight pieces of artillery and one battalion of marines, headed by a full band. The other military companies were also accompanied by bands. At noon the ceremonies commenced in the East Room. On the border of the mirrors were hung emblems of mourning, while the drapery gave to the room a dim light, that added to the solemnity of the mournful scene.

President Johnson stood beside the remains of the lamented President during the funeral oration and General Grant sat at the head of the corpse, while the members of the Cabinet and ex-Vice President Hamlin were grouped about. The Rev. Dr. Hall read a portion of the Episcopalian service for the burial of the dead, commencing:

"Lord let me know myself, and the number of my days, that I may be certain how long I have to live. Behold Thou hast made my days as it were a span long, and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee and every man living is altogether vanity."

Bishop Simpson, of the Methodist Church, offered a prayer, in which he fervently alluded to emancipation and other noble deeds performed by President Lincoln.

Rev. Dr. Gurley then read the funeral oration, and paid a high tribute to the memory of the late President.

At 2 o'clock the remains were taken to the Capitol by a procession over three miles in length and were placed in the rotunda, where they will lie in state today and to-morrow. They will be conveyed under escort to Springfield, Ill., via Philadelphia, New York, Buffalo and Chicago.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—All the foreign Ministers, with their attaches, in all fifty six, were present at the funeral service at the Executive Mansion to-day. Their places in the programme came directly after the President and Cabinet. This, for the first time in our history, was in accordance with the usage of foreign Nations where diplomatic corps follow the Monarch. Heretofore they have been placed in the programme after the ex-Presidents, Justices of the Supreme Court and Members of Congress. Upon the arrival of the head of the procession at the east front of the Capitol, the coffin was born to the center of the rotunda. President Johnson stood at the foot of the coffin, surrounded by a throng of Senators, high military officers and a number of prominent Illinoisans, as chief mourners. Mr. Gurley standing at the head of the coffin, uttered a few most impressive remarks, chiefly in the solemn words of Scripture consigning the dead ashes once animated by the soul of Lincoln to the original dust. The deep tones of his voice reverberated from the vast walls and ceiling of the rotunda which were now first used for such a solemn occasion, and during the impressive scene many were affected to tears.

NEW YORK, April 19.—It is estimated that 125,000 people were in the streets of Washington to day, to witness the funeral ceremonies of President Lincoln.

Mobile Matters.

NEW ORLEANS, April 15.—The Times' has the following special:

LAKEPORT, April 13.—I have just arrived from Mobile. The Stars and Stripes were hoisted on Batteries Porter and McIntosh at 10 A. M. yesterday, and on the big church steeple at 2:30 P. M. Granger's forces occupy the city. The rebels commenced evacuating on the 10th and continued until yesterday when all left. The tug boat Allen was blown up by a torpedo yesterday.

On the Track of Booth.

READING, PA., April 20.—Lyon, the United States detective, furnishes the following statement: Booth came to Reading on a train. He was in Reading yesterday all day. The man that recognized him informed Lyon that he knew it was Booth. Lyon, in company with Maj. Miller and Detective Farley, heard at the depot that a man answering his description had got on the train which had just left. The facts were immediately made known to Nichols of the road, and an effort was made to telegraph to Port Clinton, the first telegraph station; but the operator not being about, an engine fired up and Lyon and Miller and the man who had seen Booth, proceeded with full speed to overtake the regular train at Port Clinton, where they were informed that the man they described had got off there, but whether he went to Cata Wisa by train or not could not be ascertained.

A dispatch was sent to Tamqua to the conductor of the train and in the meantime Port Clinton was carried. Upon the arrival of the train at Tamqua, the conductor telegraphed as follows:

The man is on the train. Another dispatch sent left the station with orders for his detention.

At 8 o'clock, detective Lyon read a telegram from the conductor, dated Catawissa, saying, No such man came through on my train. Lyon is satisfied the man is Booth. What means are being taken for his arrest are being kept private for obvious reasons.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The Creole from Hilton Head the 6th has arrived.

The capture of Mobile was announced by rebel deserters in Savannah on the 11th.

Columbus was captured by Thomas' cavalry after a hard fight with Forrest and 400 or 500 of his men were captured. Montgomery, Ala., is captured.

CINCINNATI, April 20.—Nashville papers announce the death of Andrew Jackson, Jr., adopted son of Gen. Jackson.

Wilberforce, Greene county, Ohio, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday. Loss, $80,000.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says: It was Ex-Gov. Farrell, of Wisconsin, who notified Johnson of the murder of Lincoln. Johnson had retired for the night, but as soon as he was notified prompt and active measures were taken for his protection. But for this presence of mind on the part of Governor Farwell, in all probability President Johnson would have also been murdered during the excitement produced by the knowledge of the murder of Lincoln. An unusual stir was heard in the room adjoining Johnson, where unknown men with pistol and dirk were found.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The Herald's advices from Winchester, April 18th, says: Mosby surrendered his forces to General Chapman, April 17th, on terms similar to those granted to Lee.

It is understood that Gen. Rosseau has also asked that his command be included in the earlier. Mosby's men number probably about 700. Great numbers of Lee's soldiers are arriving within our lines. They speak of the idea that any considerable number of their men have gone to Johnson, and say that when it is fairly understood by Johnson's men, that they can go to their homes, they will go.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The War Department offers a reward of $50,000 for the arrest of the assassin of the President and $25,000 each for the arrest of G. A. Alsen and David Harold, accomplices of Booth. Any person harboring or secreting said persons or either of them, will be treated as accomplices in the murder of the President and will be subject to trial before a military commission and punished with death.

NEWBERN, April 17.—Intelligence reaches us tonight that the rebels have destroyed their embryo navy yard at Halifax, on the Roanoke river, as a consequence of our victory at Richmond. Two vessels, one a ram and the other a gunboat, intended for operation on the North Carolina Sound, then in process of building, were also destroyed.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Secretary Seward was so much better to day that he was able to be taken from his bed and supported at the window where he witnessed a passage of a portion of the funeral procession. Fred'k Seward is also improving.

CHICAGO, April 19.—A National monument fund [illegible] and a plot of ground containing six acres in the heart of the city of Springfield, Illinois, has been selected as the burial place of the lamented President Lincoln.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Dispatches from Halifax, Montreal, and other points in the British Provinces say there is a general suspension of business. Flags were at half mast and other manifestations of deep sympathy with the people of the United States, and respect for the character of the deceased President.

Dispatches from all parts of the East state that the day was almost universally observed. Everywhere business was suspended. The churches were filled and discourses appropriate to the occasion delivered.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Persia from Liverpool the 8th and Queenstown the 9th has arrived.

In the House of Commons, on the 7th, Lord Lichon moved for the correspondence relative to the Canadian defence. He took the ground that the defence could only have the effect of inviting the Americans to make Canada a battle ground.

On the following day, [illegible] inquired as to the approaching conference with the Canadian Deputation.

Cardwell said that four members of the Canadian Council were expected to confer with the Government. The result of the conference will be properly communicated to Parliament and nothing will be done to bind the country without the full knowledge and consent of Parliament.

MELBOURNE, Feb. 25.—The war has recommenced in New Zealand. The British troops had suffered considerable loss. The plague continues at St. Petersburg. The total number of cases was 10,000, and 2,000 deaths. The cases average 100 per day.

Letter from Walla Walla.

WALLA WALLA, W. T., April 18, 1865.

Since the companies of the Oregon cavalry have arrived and settled down at the military post hard by Fort Walla Walla things there about began to assume a neat and orderly appearance, a proper state of discipline obtains throughout, a becoming dignity and esprit of the officers is observed, while that esprit du corps, which is always gratifying to behold in the military arm of the service, is maintained to the very letter by both "rank and file." Indeed, with us it has long been a matter of surprise why that same rigidity of discipline and exactness of rule could not apply to our volunteer organization as it has been infused into the regular arm of the service; no good reason exists for the disparity. Lieut. Colonel George B. Curry arrived here a few days ago and is now the commanding officer at the post which, en passant, is the headquarters of the Oregon cavalry regiment. The Colonel is an officer of address and tone, and will certainly command the respect and confidence of officers and men, while his urbanity of demeanor and general popularity cannot fail to [illegible] the good will and affinity of the populace at this point.

The recently elected City Council were duly installed into office for the current year on the 18th inst. S. G. Rees, Esq., was unanimously chosen as President of the Board. Mr. R. is the junior editor of Walla Walla Statesman, and as presiding officer will bring to bear considerable practical knowledge of city affairs and parliamentary usages. Mr. A. L. Brown was continued as Clerk; Marshal Ed. Ryan was authorized to appoint a Deputy Marshal and policeman. The reports of the Treasurer and Clerk, for the fiscal year ending April 11, furnish exhibits of the amount of receipts and disbursements during the past year: Amount received from taxes, licenses, Recorder's fines and other sources, $17,422 35; amount of disbursements during same period, $12,980 00.

We learn from an official quarter that the Postmaster General has ordered the discontinuance of mail service on the following named routes in Idaho Territory: From (what is known as) The Springs to Elk City; from Antoine Plante's (Spokane River Ferry) to Hell Gate Ronde, Bitter Root Valley; from The Springs to Florence City. The mails from Boise to Colville and to Pierce City are continued as usual. Consequently, We learn that Ben. Holliday has sublet the contract for transporting the mail between Boise City and the Dalles to Col. G. F. Thomas & Co.'s Boise Stage Line—term, three and a quarter years.

The good news from the East has served to relume the political horizon of Walla Walla valley with a halo of unwonted true Union sentiment. Messrs. Garfielde and Evans are expected here soon to rouse the freemen of this beautiful valley of ours to a faithful discharge of their duties during the approaching election for Delegate to Congress.

The Democracy will meet in their respective precincts on Saturday, April 29, to elect delegates to attend the County Convention to be holden in this city on the 6th proximo, for the purpose of nominating county officers for the ensuing two years, viz.: Sheriff, Treasurer, Auditor and County Commissioners.

"The Walla Walla Agricultural Society," which was organized some three months since, will have an adjourned meeting, April 22, at the District School House, on Alder street, to adopt a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the society, &c. The farmers of the valley are taking a step in the right direction.

An Irishman named Wm. O'Connor, formerly a faithful Government packer, died at Wallula quite suddenly last week. Consumption is supposed to have carried him off.

There is a late law of Congress, which perhaps may interest some young aspiring gent of this Territory. Each Congressional District is now entitled to one appointee—lieutenancy—in the U. S. Revenue service. It is reported here by letters from Washington City, that Mr. Russell Glover, of Puget Sound, has been directed by the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the Collector of Customs, at San Francisco, for examination. If successful, Mr. G. will be appointed a Lieutenant in the Revenue Marine, and thus have the honor of representing our Territory as the first officer appointed to that branch of the service in pursuance of the new law.

The city and valley during the past six months have been annoyed very much by the dastardly operations of a band of bold, audacious thieves and vagabonds. Many persons have had their horses, cattle, etc., driven off by them. To such an extent have their acts reached, that numbers of the inhabitants have determined to make the guilty scoundrels acquainted with his honor Judge Lynch. The city jail at present is of little or no use as a place of incarceration; measures, however, are being taken to render it secure against future escapes. It is to be surrounded also by a high, substantial fence. The Walla Walla Statesman, in its issue of the 14th instant, contains a well timed article upon this subject, and, as we opine, takes the correct view of "Law and Order," congratulating the people upon the "wonderful thinning out of the light-fingered gentry" of late, as a consequence of the activity of the Vigilantes and assuring the citizens that many needed improvements are now contemplated by the "City Fathers." The "Major" holds forth in the following trite and judicious strain: "All honest people in the valley will rejoice at their departure. Thieves are a terrible nuisance, and while no honest person can be found who has any respect for them, they in turn have no respect for honest people—honest people have no rights which they feel bound to respect.

Strong jails present great inducements for thieves to keep away. Our jail, we hope, will be very strong when it is fixed up. Chain gangs are said to have a very negative effect for villains."

Nothing of special interest has engaged the attention of the District Court during the past week. The grand jury were charged as to their duties in a plain straightforward, sensible manner by His Honor Judge Wyche. Mr. B. F. Stone is foreman of the Grand Jury. Several indictments have been handed in. The Honor presides with his accustomed dignity and bearing. The Prosecuting Attorney, S. B. Fargo, Esq., takes good care that the interests of the Territory don't go uncared for, while the hard toiling Clerk, E. N. Sexton, Esq., renders satisfaction to all who visit his desk officially. Some two or three decrees have been entered in divorce cases. The Court will be in session some two weeks longer.

It is reported here to day, on the authority of deputy Sheriff Seidel, who has returned from Wallula, that the Vigilantes have hung some two or three men—cattle thieves—on the road between Wallula; one or two are said to have been hanged on Dry Creek, some six miles from town, and one or two more in other parts of the valley. This report appears to be true, and has given rise to much comment here in the streets. Yours, &c.,

IN MEMORIAM.—At a regular meeting of Samaritan Lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., held on Wednesday evening, April 19th, 1865, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In the death of Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, a great calamity has befallen the nation, and sorrow like a pall overshadows the hearts of the people, as well as horror and execration of the foul act that has removed from earth, one whose honesty of purpose and undeviating firmness of character gave strength and force to the Government, while it casts a gloom over the nation, it reaches our hearts and fills them with sympathy and sorrow, and teaches us with no other sympathetic [illegible] great truth, that "in the midst of life we are in death," and again reminds us of the certain decay of all earthly things. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we as a Lodge, deeply sympathize and mourn in common with the public, in this great calamity, as well as express our horror and denunciation of the [illegible] act, which has removed from earth one so good and great.

Resolved, That our Lodge room be appropriately draped in mourning for 30 days, and that these resolutions be [illegible]

HERE HE IS A CHINOOK DICTIONARY.—An Editor living under the shadow of the hub in New York city, has addressed a letter to one of our business firms in a plain, legible hand as follows: "[illegible] McCormick, Esq., Portland, Oregon, Cal." Wonder if it is as it appears, and wonder if some person will not move in the matter of an effort to enlighten the eastern portion of America a little, as to what it is that distant region where rolls the Oregon and hears no sound save its own dashings. Poets indeed must be the kind that cannot realize before Oregon—one of the proudest States of the Union—is situated a State with a population of over 100,000 souls, with a taxable property of over $20,000,000, which is being increased at the rate of half a million or more annually; a State that gave 2,000 majority for the Union at a contested election, and gives its thousands monthly for the support of the humane commissions connected with the Federal army, in the relief and distresses among our soldiery. Give Oregon a place in the rank where she belongs.

MUST BE OBSERVED.—Under orders from Gen. McDowell all persons expressing any signs of approbation at the dastardly assassination of President Lincoln, will be promptly arrested. And all sheets disloyal enough to [illegible] the horrible crime, are to be forthwith suppressed. In conversation upon the matter, prominent officials of the State and Government have expressed the hope that there would be no occasion for enforcing the order in Portland; but that any vile scoundrel, drunk or sober, making any demonstration of the real joy of his heart, in the sorrowful event, would be instantly taken into custody.

A TRIP AND A HALF A DAY.—A person met us on the street yesterday, very much "riled" because he had been left here in Portland, when he wanted to go to Oregon City. We are supposed by a great many people to embrace the whole circle of information, to be literally the encyclopedia of everything occurring in this particular spot of Uncle Sam's dominion, but such is not the case. We stated a few days since that the coaches were arriving in the city daily, but we failed to note that the steamer Senator was making "a trip and a half a day," leaving Portland one morning and Oregon City the next. It was such arrangement, and our city customer undertook to take us to task for the omission. His business is not our business.

AN AGGRAVATED CASE.—Lafayette Caples was again up on a charge of assaulting the Indian Baptiste, yesterday, this time before Recorder McCoy, acting as a Justice of the Peace. It was a very aggravating case, as developed by the [illegible], and defendant was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court, in the sum of $[illegible]. The club used by Caples in making the assault was [illegible] in Court and seemed to be sufficiently large to effectually slay an ox. The Indian possibly barely escaped with his life, but it was not established that murder was [illegible] or intended.

[illegible]—On Sunday morning, 23d instant, Rev. [illegible] will deliver a discourse on the "death of President [illegible]," in the M. E. Church [illegible]

Rev. Mr. Gray, of Albany, will fill the place [illegible] tomorrow, at the [illegible] Church, corner of Jefferson and Second streets.

STREET SPRINKLER AGAIN.—The street sprinkler is again about, doing its work in distributing [illegible] healthy water for the purpose of laying the dust.

S. J. MCCORMICK HAS THEM.—S. J. McCormick is Agent, and has for sale Capt. Mullan's book, spoken of at length in these columns yesterday. We recommend the work to the public.

"THE COMMERCIAL."—The proprietors of the [illegible] named new hotel on Washington street, [illegible] establishment open to the patronage of the public [illegible] advertisement.

THE FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—The Committee to whom the work has been entrusted, of preparing a programme and making the necessary arrangements for observing the solemnities of the funeral rites of President Lincoln in this city on the 27th inst., are engaged with energy and will soon be enabled to report the order in which the exercises will be conducted. Sub-committees have been appointed to prepare the various plans, &c. Gov. Addison C. Gibbs was selected by the committee, chosen for the purpose, to deliver an eulogy on the occasion; and replies as follows:

PORTLAND, April 20, 1865.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation requesting me to deliver "An eulogy upon the life and services of the late President Lincoln," on the 27th inst. With diffidence, I accept the same.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
A. C. GIBBS.

To W. H. Watkins, Thos. Frazar, J. J. [illegible], Chas. H. Larrabee, Committee, &c.

The following card of invitation is being sent to persons throughout the State at large, and it is hoped that the citizens of towns who do not observe the day elsewhere will join in the ceremonies at Portland:

The citizens of Portland, through their Committee—undersigned—respectfully invite [illegible] to participate with them in the Funeral Obsequies of our late Chief Magistrate, Abraham Lincoln, on Thursday, the 27th instant, [illegible] A. M. An early and favorable response will [illegible] oblige. Yours, &c., John McCracken, [illegible] Smith, S. J. McCormick, W. H. Bennett, [illegible] Invitation.

Hebrew Benevolent Society.—A Special meeting will be held at Turn Verein Hall [illegible] April 23d, 1865, at 3 o'clock P. M. A full [illegible] requested. By order of the President.

D. H. HILDEBRANDT [illegible]

Mrs. R. Pollard, Trance Speaker, will speak at the Court House on Sunday evening, April 23d, at 7½ o'clock. Subject—Our Country—its Losses and Gains. Admission, 50 cents.

WISTAR'S BALSAM
OF
[illegible]
HALF A CENTURY,
[illegible]
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of [illegible] of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known, so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve and to cure disease exists in no other medicine yet discovered.

The unparalleled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these:

S. H. Fisher, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. Boyden, M. D., Exeter, Me.
Alexander Hatch, M. D., China, Me.
R. Fellows, M. D., Hill, N. H.
W. H. Webb, M. D., Cape Vincent, N. Y.
W. H. Lynch, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
Abraham Skillman, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. Martin, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas, for the fame and virtue of Wistar's Balsam have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, while at any attempt on our part to produce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1, 1862, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed names of both Seth W. Fowle & Co., Boston, Mass., and John D. Park, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac-simile of the signatures of "I. Butts," "Crandall & Park," and "H. Wistar, M. D."

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.
NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM?

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

On hearing the bells ring on the passage of the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery in the United States.

It is done!
Clang of bell and roar of gun
Send the tidings up and down.
How the belfries rock and reel,
How the great guns, peal on peal,
Fling the joy from town to town!

Ring, O bells!
Every stroke exulting tells
Of the burial hour of crime.
Loud and long, that all may hear,

Of eternity and time!

[illegible] word is [illegible]
[illegible] He has spoken,
He has smitten with his thunder
The iron walls asunder,
And the gates of brass are broken!

Loud and long
Lift the old exulting song,
Sing with Miriam by the sea,
He has cast the mighty down;
[illegible] and rider sank and drowned;
He hath triumphed gloriously!

Did we dare
In our agony of prayer
Ask for more than He has done?
When was ever His right hand
Over any time or land
Stretched as now, beneath the sun?

How they pale,
Ancient myth and song and tale,
In this wonder of our days,
When the cruel rod of war
Blossoms white with righteous law,
And the wrath of man is praise!

The Freeman's Journal says that the restoration of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, on which Mr. Guinness has expended £150,000, is completed, and the edifice is now as nearly as possible in the same state it was 700 years ago.

John Turner, of Chester, (Eng.,) a poor printer, has just died, leaving quite a property. He leaves one thousand pounds towards erecting another Wesleyan Chapel in Chester, and respectable legacies to various Wesleyan Societies.

A journal of Vienna is the first to give extracts from the Emperor Napoleon's "Life of Cæsar." It consists of a parallel between the state of Rome in Cæsar's time and England before the Reform Bill—in both countries the aristocracy dominating at the elections.

A giant seven feet four inches high, and hideously repulsive, recently made his appearance in India. At first the people stoned him as a demon, but having afterwards discovered five marks upon his head they declared him to be a god and paid him divine honors.

A mean man is noticed in the Whitby Gazette. Having attempted suicide by hanging himself with a logging chain, he was cut down by his serving man with an axe. On settling accounts afterwards with the man, the employer deducted a sum for damage done to the axe.

A Hartford man, who was some years ago engaged in quarrying on the upper Delaware river, remembers that while drilling a rock a disagreeable fluid flowed from the hole, and they had to plug it up. He is now of the opinion that he then "struck ile," and he is gone out with a party to "pull out the plug."

Class in the middle of Geography stand up!" said the schoolmaster. "What is a pyramid?" he asked. "A pile of men in a circus, one on top of the other." "Where is Egypt?" "Where it always was." "Where is Wales?" "All over the sea." "Very well," said the schoolmaster, "stand there till I show you a species of birch that grows all over the country."

The statement is made that the loss of life in this war has been two hundred and forty thousand. Of these, two hundred and twenty thousand died in the service from wounds and sickness in the field and hospitals. Twenty thousand more are estimated to be the number which have died after discharge, from wounds received and disease contracted while in service. Meanwhile the emigration has more than kept this number good.

An alderman in Troy (N. Y.) got married and had rather a thrilling time on his wedding tour. He was two days in getting to Buffalo on account of the snow, was in the American Hotel when it burned down, and on his way to Chicago was thrown over an embankment twenty feet high by a railroad accident, badly bruising him and his new wife. The couple were in Chicago, recovering from their injuries and getting courage to try the return trip.

THE OLDEST INHABITANT.—A Wisconsin paper contains an account of a man named Joseph Crelé, who is claimed to be the oldest man living. He was born in Detroit, of French parents. The record of his baptism in the Catholic Church of that city shows that he is now one hundred and thirty-nine years of age. He has been a resident of Wisconsin for about a century. He was first married in New Orleans one hundred and nine years ago. Some years after he settled in Prairie du Chien, while Wisconsin was yet a province of France. Before the Revolutionary War he was employed to carry letters between Prairie du Chien and Green Bay. It was but a few years ago that he was called as a witness in the Circuit Court, in a case involving the title to certain real estate at Prairie du Chien, to give testimony in relation to events that transpired eighty years before. He now resides four or five miles out of Portage City, with a daughter by his third wife, who is over seventy years of age. The old man is still active, is able to chop wood and to walk several miles. He speaks English quite imperfectly, but converses quite fluently in the French language, stoops a little under the burden of years, but no more than many men of seventy. In person he is rather above the medium hight, spare in flesh, but showing evidence of having been, in his prime, a man of sinewy strength. Concerning his habits—a subject of much interest in connection with such extraordinary longevity—we have been able to learn but a little, except that he is an inveterate smoker.

The World is informed that a large quantity of flour is now on the road to the Basin, "from the lower country."

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions to the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth, regenerated, conscious of new vigor.— The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

I AM STILL COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF LEGAL TENDER NOTES AT PAR (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862,) for the rent of my Handsome Brick Block, corner of Morrison and Front streets. I feel [illegible] to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

JACOB MAYER

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of December, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the payments were CASH; since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest, for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real [illegible] Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

SPEECH OF HON. J. H. MITCHELL, IN THE SENATE, OCT. 14TH, 1864.

MR. PRESIDENT:—Having presented for the consideration of the Senate the joint resolutions upon which we are about to cast our votes, I deem it proper at this time that my reasons for the resolutions, and the vote which I shall cast in their favor, should be made known. And here permit me to remark, that, in my judgment, the end sought to be accomplished by the instructions which the resolutions under discussion will, if adopted, impose upon our representation in the National Congress is one of vast importance to the people of Oregon and of the Pacific coast generally, and hence is one, in order to be attained, should receive our influence and exertion, provided such action is compatible with that duty which we as Americans, and as the representatives of a loyal devoted people, owe to our National Government. It is a fact undeniable that the trade and commerce of the Pacific States and Territories have, even at this early day in their history, assumed an importance which is not only being felt, but also acknowledged and appreciated by the nations with which we are surrounded; and this is not a matter of surprise, our geographical position alone, commanding as it does the whole of the expansive waters of the Pacific Ocean, and embracing within its limits the most magnificent bays and inlets, and the most stately rivers of the world, in which are found some of the finest harbors that the ships of man ever entered, is, of itself, a convincing and enduring prophecy of that great system of trade and commerce that must eventually and at an early day exist between this western world and the islands of the Pacific, and the great gravitating centre of which will be the Pacific States and Territories. And as the resources of this portion of our country are being developed, while this vast empire of wealth is pouring forth its treasure piles to swell the trade and expand the commerce of the world, while our extensive and magnificent forests, embracing as they do the finest timber upon which the eye of the naturalist ever rested, and in quantity enough to rebuild all the cities that have ever been destroyed by the ravages of time; while our broad fields, responding to the studied efforts of the sturdy agriculturist, and our fertile plains, over whose green pastures are scattered unnumbered thousand lowing herds of live stock, more than enough to subsist armies, together with our mineral wealth in all its varied forms, all combine to establish the fact that as to those great staple productions we must necessarily become an exporting people on a most magnificent scale, it is but right and a matter of judicious precaution upon our part as a people, to establish and foster the most friendly feelings and intimate relations with those foreign governments which are most nearly [illegible] with us, on account of geographical position, wh[illegible] and our articles of export, and which can in turn supply such demands of this coast as must necessarily be met by foreign importations. And how singularly true that the necessary importations of the Pacific States and Territories, and those of the Sandwich Islands, can, in nearly every particular, be supplied by the exports of the other. The merchant vessel sailing from the ports of Portland, San Francisco and Astoria, with her cargo of lumber, spars, shingles, staves, flour, fish, coal, and butter, with which to supply the demands of the people of the Hawaiian Government, returns in a few short weeks from the port of Honolulu bearing her cargo of sugar, molasses, syrup, coffee, pulu, paddy, rice, arrow-root, tobacco, cotton, goat-skins and tropical fruits with which to supply the necessities and swell the luxuries of the people of this coast. This fact alone, in connection with the consideration of the relative geographical positions of the two countries in a commercial point of view, is of sufficient importance to induce the people of Oregon and of this coast to, at least, pray the general government, in an earnest and respectful manner, to remove every barrier to a system of free trade between the Hawaiian Government and the Pacific States and Territories. I am aware, Mr. President, that in urging the adoption of these resolutions, I am to some extent indulging in the views and theories of the old democratic party upon the question of tariff; but, sir, however much I may differ with the democracy of the present day upon the great over-shadowing question now before the American people, and upon that question I must be permitted to say that I do differ widely and emphatically, I would be false to my duty, if for this reason I should stubbornly repudiate all the theories of governmental policy of that once time-honored party as visionary, objectionable and wrong; as theories founded in error, sustained alone by a system of fallacious reasoning, and as being unworthy the support of a devoted and patriotic people. And hence, I claim that whatever is right and proper and just as a principle, or a theory in our government, whether it may have originated with the democratic, the whig or the republican party, should be permitted to stand forever, though parties and party names be scattered to the four winds of Heaven. And while it is true that a system of free trade has been urged by the democratic party in times gone by, as the grand idea upon which our government should act, and the system of a protective tariff has, upon the other hand, been claimed by the opposition to that party as the true policy, it is a fact that must be admitted that both were right to a certain extent and both wrong—in this, that neither system is applicable to all portions of our country; and the true policy of our government, as I believe, will apply different rules upon this question to different commercial sections of our wide domain.

The question of tariff has always been regarded more as a measure of protection to home manufacture and home industry than as a source of national revenue, and therefore, whenever the exports of any foreign government do not come in competition with our own productions, there can be no good reason for a high tariff upon such importations, except it be solely for the purpose of raising revenue. And it is a fact which the past history of the nation has fully demonstrated, that where the only reason for heavy duties upon imports is the fact that it swells the national revenue, the hardships, inconveniences and burdens that are thereby imposed upon the great masses of the people, who are the consumers of these foreign imports, much more than counterbalance the benefits that accrue to the National Government from such a system of high tariffs. And in relation to the high tariff upon the importations of this coast from the Sandwich Islands are these remarks peculiarly applicable; but very few indeed of the exports of these Islands that would under any system of trade be sent here would come in competition with our own products, none in fact, except perhaps the articles of hides, live stock and wool; while upon the other hand, few if any of the exports from this coast will meet with competition among the products of the Islands, and not only so, but the only commodities of the one region are met and amply supplied by the overflowing abundance of the other. The sugar plantations, the rice, and cotton and pulu fields of the Islands are to-day sustained and carried on almost exclusively by aid of importations from this coast, while not only some of the more solid substantials, but also the finer delicacies and special luxuries that grace the table of the [illegible], the mechanic, the farmer and the professional man, as well as that of the honest, energetic miner of the Pacific States and Territories, are supplied from the cargoes of merchant vessels that clear from the ports of the Hawaiian Government. These considerations alone would indicate the importance and necessity of establishing the most intimate relations of trade and commerce and friendly feeling between the two governments.

But there are additional and still more weighty considerations that demand our united exertions in an effort to secure closer relations of reciprocity between the two Governments. The great and incalculable advantages of these Islands to the United States, in a commercial and political point of view, and more especially to the people of the Pacific States and Territories, will not for a moment be questioned by any one. Foreign Powers—France and England—have long been looking down with an avaricious eye upon their wealth; these powers are not uninformed, or forgetful of their importance as a military foothold in future gigantic efforts for the further extension of Empire, and they are doubtless each to-day looking forward to the time when its banner shall wave triumphant over these gems of the Pacific. They have long and earnestly labored to obtain a controling power by which the Hawaiian Government would be rendered subservient to their will. To-day the ports of British Columbia are thrown open to their trade, and our northern neighbors of Vancouver's Island, and other portions of the British regions, by reason of their free ports, are already enjoying all the benefits of this trade, which we, by reason of our high duties, are to a very great extent denied the advantages we might otherwise enjoy; while at the same time the revenue arising to the General Government from these high duties, after the deduction of all expenses, is but very meagre indeed. The gradual encroachments of the English Government upon American commerce, and upon outposts of such vital importance to the people of this coast, should not be overlooked by the American people, or by our National Government.

The binding ligaments of trade are difficult to be broken, and let these Islands be bound to us by treaty and interest, and it will prove the strongest barrier that can possibly be reared against the encroachments of foreign powers upon a trade of such vast importance to us as a people. The United States government has at the present day a great advantage over all the nations of the Earth combined, so far as the trade of these Islands is concerned; and it is alone by removing the restrictions imposed by heavy duties, and by encouraging a closer relation of reciprocity between the two Governments, that we will be able to retain it.

It will be seen from the following table of statistics, that our trade with the Hawaiian Government, or rather their trade with us, is very large, compared with any other country.

Value of Foreign Imports to the Sandwich Islands for the year 1863, upon which they pay duty:

From the United States, Pacific side,	$304,502 12
" " Atlantic side,	122,770 00
" Bremen,	194,429 11
" Great Britain,	63,400 17
" Vancouver's Island,	32,210 52
" Islands of the Pacific,	12,749 06
Total,	$730,060 98

Amount of Goods and Spirits bonded, and Goods and Spirits imported free of duty into the islands, from all countries, in the year 1863:

Goods and Spirits, bonded,	$341,308 42
Goods, free of duty,	95,537 72
Total, bonded and free of duty,	$436,846 14

Thus it will be seen that of the importations of the Sandwich Islands for the year 1863, upon which they paid duty, considerably over one-half were from the United States, and within a fraction of the one-half were from the Pacific Coast; and of the whole amount of importations into the Islands for the same year, including those upon which they paid duty, those bonded and those free of duty, considerably over one-third were from the United States, and nearly one-third from the Pacific coast.

It further appears from the following statistics, which are official, that the tonnage of American vessels largely controls in the ports of the Hawaiian government:

The whole tonnage of merchant vessels at all the ports of the Islands, in the year 1863, was		42,930
American,	31,718
British,	6,156
All other countries,	5,056
Total, as above,		42,930

The same predominance in favor of the United States will appear by a reference to the statistics of the number of whaling vessels at the ports of the Hawaiian Islands, in 1863. They were as follows, in number:

American, 92; Hawaiian, 3; Oldenburg, 4; British, 3. Total number, 102.

From these statistics it is evident that American interests largely predominate in trade, commerce and navigation; and not only so, but the sugar plantations of these Islands are principally owned by and under the management and control of Americans residing there and who are engaged in trade and commerce; and in this view, the proposed treaty of reciprocity would be regarded there as a measure to facilitate trade between our own people, than as a treaty with a foreign power. Every consideration, then, of duty and interest, it seems to me, would concur to animate every American citizen resident upon the Pacific coast with earnestness and zeal in favor of a treaty of reciprocity between the two Governments, by which each will be greatly benefitted, and also bound indissolubly together by the strongest ties of interest and trade.

And more especially should so important a matter to the people of Oregon and the Pacific States and Territories generally be taken in hand, and urged upon the attention of our Government while it is in the power of our Government to accomplish it, and when the proposition for such a treaty comes to us from the Hawaiian Government. Such a proposition, I am informed, is now made; Judge E. H. Allen, the present Chief Justice of the Hawaiian Government, formerly a member of Congress from the State of Massachusetts, and who, although now identified with the interests and government of these Islands, is understood to be an American in every sense of the term, has been empowered by his Government to negotiate a treaty, specifying in general terms for the admission of the leading articles imported by either country from the other, free of duty; and he is now at the city of Washington for the purpose of presenting the matter to our Government.

While it is true that such a treaty would, under our present rates of tariff, diminish somewhat our nation's revenue, it would reduce the cost upon this coast to the consumer of such articles as coffee, sugar, syrup, rice, pulu, &c., &c., to about one-half of their present rates—provided the supply from the Islands should prove equal to the demand; of which fact, there could be but little room to doubt.

The custom-house valuation of sugar at Honolulu is five cents per pound as shown by custom-house statistics. The difference between this and the price at which that fine article is sold to the consumer in this market, excluding the price of freight, and the profit of the seller, will indicate the importance of a treaty of reciprocity by which that article will be admitted to our ports free of duty. Should such a treaty be entered into between the two Governments, it would be made to apply, doubtless, to the leading articles of imports of the two regions—this at least would be the general basis liable to exception, as to certain articles—which would include possibly in the exports from this coast the articles of flour, fish, coal, lumber, shingles, shooks, staves, plants and seeds, vegetables, fruits and butter, and perhaps some others; and in our imports from the Islands would be included, possibly, the articles of sugar, molasses, syrup, coffee, pulu, paddy, cotton, tobacco, arrow-root, rice, corn, wool, hides, goat-skins, live stock, tropical fruits, &c.

To the mutual exchange of all these articles, free of duty, there could, it seems to me, be no objection, excepting it be as to the articles of wool, hides, and live stock. As to these articles, we are becoming large producers and of course would not desire competition from a foreign market. But it is not probable that it would be strenuously insisted upon the part of the Hawaiian Government that these articles should be named in the treaty, as doubtless markets equally good as ours are afforded for such articles at other ports.

The following tables of custom-house statistics, which are official, will give some idea of the trade that has been carried on between the two countries during the past four years, in the articles specified.

While it is true that by these statistics our trade does not equal theirs in value at the present time, as to the articles specified, yet when we consider the immense benefit it would be to the people of Oregon, and of this coast, and also the fact that as the resources of our States and Territories gradually become developed, our trade must necessarily expand and our exports rapidly increase, we can have no hesitation in coming to the conclusion that a treaty of reciprocity, such as contemplated by the resolutions now before the Senate, would be a measure of incalculable benefit to the people of this coast, and one which at the same time, so far from embarrassing the General Government, would add to its vigor and strength by giving a new and healthy impetus to its commerce upon these western shores, and at the same time furnish another link in the great chain of interest and trade that draws us as a Nation in closer alliance with the civilized Governments of Earth, and which binds us equally to them.

A reciprocity treaty, similar to the one contemplated by these resolutions, was negotiated in July, 1855, by the Hon. William L. Marcy, at the time Secretary of State of the United States, and the Hon. Chief Justice Lee, then the Hawaiian Minister at the court of Washington; but this treaty was not ratified by the United States Senate on account of certain opposition made by Senators Slidell and Benjamin, of Louisiana, which caused the postponement of its consideration, and thereby its defeat. The reasons, I doubt not, which actuated that opposition to the ratification of that treaty, are no longer in existence; and it now remains a question of policy to be determined by the loyal servants of a free people, untrammelled by any opposition from such men as Benjamin and Slidell, whose greatest virtue has proven to be the basest perfidy and the most inexcusable treachery, and as a question of policy it reaches far beyond the mere selfish considerations of present benefit to a special few—its direct tendency will be to countervail that spirit of Foreign Encroachment that would imperceptibly, but surely, sever the bonds that unite us with the Governments of Earth, and surround our nation with a wall of unfriendly power. It will eventuate in checking the further advance upon our Pacific shores of that spirit that actuated the French Emperor, under the false pretext of demanding the payment of certain moneys alleged to be due his subjects, to invade a distracted Mexico, and by a system of treachery, aided by armed force, place a foreign prince on a throne at our very door, built upon the ruins of a sister Republic, and the effect of which is not only to place the fathomless mineral wealth of that vast region at the disposal of the French Government, but also to give the ambitious Napoleon a strong foothold beneath the very shadow as it were of our nation's Capital, upon which he may lean with ease as he reaches still farther on in his insatiate grasp for empire and power. While the present unhappy condition of our country, the result of a rebellion than which none so terrible or so unjustifiable, was ever yet waged against the government of man, may render it unwise and impolitic to resist such an encroachment in a manner that under a different state of circumstances would be accounted not only justifiable but highly commendable, still, may we not even at this time, and surrounded though we are by the fierce howlings of intestine warfare, adopt a policy towards those Governments with which we are most nearly allied in interest and trade, that will tend to interweave their interests with ours, in such a manner as to render them inseparable by the strong arm, or the cunning device of unfriendly powers—a policy not dictated by a desire of conquest, not originated by the unscrupulous and mercenary motives that induced a bloody Charles the Fifth to dispatch Hernando Cortez that he might rob the golden treasure house of the Montezumas, but a policy dictated by that enlightened, patriotic spirit of the nineteenth century which, burning in the hearts of the loyal American people, moves them onward as if by an irresistable and Divine power to strengthen, maintain, protect and defend, by all and every means within their reach, the great and magnificent structure of Republican Government under which we live.

Such, Mr. President, I believe to be the policy proposed by the Resolutions now before the Senate, and I hope, therefore, to see them unanimously adopted.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!

Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.
THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state, by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.
The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REEDSBURY, Wis., Sept. 16, 1864.
"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.
C. A. FLAUTE."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.
"* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:
HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.
"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

FOR THE

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA,
BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color: hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and ureters of the kidney, preventing gravel formations and enlargements of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,
and to have great control over
SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.
Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained a secret until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve
PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,
without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)
This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Disease, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.
AS A TONIC
Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

No Flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 26, 1864.

News of To-Day.

Hood's defeat is becoming more of a rout, and completely a disaster than yet reported. Half his army is lost, and the remainder are completely demoralized and broken spirited. Seventeen thousand men are reported among the killed, wounded and prisoners, while the whole country is reported as swarming with his deserters.

This great achievement of our noble army under Thomas, is not half appreciated by our readers, judging from appearances, though the defeat of the second army of the South, is the most thorough result attained of any similar magnitude, and should be considered as the accomplishment of one of the most desirable successes we could expect, and is only undervalued because the public mind is so intent on Sherman's operations, that the capture of Richmond even, would be received very much as a matter of course.

The fact that peace propositions were voted down by forty-four ayes to twenty noes, in the rebel Senate is most significant. It tells us that about one third of the Senate of the Confederate States are not willing to dismiss such a matter without consideration, and such facts as this, existing now, show the operations of the conservative sentiment South, and is laying the foundation of a Union feeling that must, in time announce itself.

The great fleet at Wilmington shows that two Naval Expeditions have gone South, and that the Government means to prosecute its operations with a vigor commensurate with the cause and the crisis.

Savannah is said to be only provisioned for ten days, and the probability is that Sherman will bide his time, and wait for a surrender, that will come of necessity when the supplies are exhausted, rather than needlessly waste the lives of his men by assaulting the place.

The Richmond papers announce the situation in Tennessee, as being melancholy in the extreme. They do not conceal or excuse the utter defeat and ruin of Hood. Bragg thinks himself able to hold Wilmington, while he announces the arrival of thirty steamers and more coming, apparently to commence the attack upon that place.

There are many other interesting items included in our dispatches to-day.

Gasconade.

The Chinese Empire was supposed to have the monopoly of a certain sort of military literature, which civilized nations have looked upon as the very acme of the sublime and the ridiculous. The flourish of trumpets and rattl of kettle drums, was no more essential to their ideas of battle than the issues of proclamations, and high-sounding manifestos, was part of their system of war.

Whatever renown they may have attained in the Flowery Kingdom by such proceedings in the past, has of late been eclipsed by rebel dispatches and bulletins concerning Sherman and his march. To believe the chivalry during the past month, Sherman was marching to sure destruction; his army was surrounded by swarms of foes, beset with dangers, and its fate but a question that time would resolve by its destruction; and when it should reach the coast—if such an event was a possibility—it would only be left in shattered fragments, to meet a final annihilation; Wheeler had overwhelmed Kilpatrick; the Georgia militia had driven Foster back towards the coast, and rebeldom was jubilant on paper, glorious in dispatches and victorious by telegraph. In the meantime Sherman was marching on. The Thanksgiving turkeys, raised in forty-three counties of Georgia, made good cheer for his battalions, and when we receive the results of his march from his own pen, we shall learn that every rebel rumor was a lie, and that the progress of our army was an uninterrupted success; that our soldiers feasted and even the mule trains fattened upon the way. Every force of the enemy he met fled before his approach; and while his gains were enormous, his losses were trifling in comparison. His forces swept over Fort McAllister like a tornado, and his lines encircle Savannah in a grasp from which there is no hope of escape. The boastings that followed his march are turned into lamentations at his success; and it is after the achievement of this, by our arms, that we hear that propositions for peace are entertained in the rebel legislatures, and in the Confederate Senate, and in the last named body, twenty votes were cast against the motion to defeat them. Such results, so quickly following our successes in Tennessee and Georgia, may soon grow into a power that cannot longer be denied.

STRATEGY.—Those were palmy days for the County of Clark, in the Territory of Washington, when the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, working under a charter from the Legislature of that Territory, annually replenished the County Treasury with the amount assessed against them as taxes. But when Oregon passed the general incorporation act allowing the company to possess the same advantages in Oregon that could before only be obtained in the Territory on the other side of the river, the Oregon Steam Navigation Company became an Oregon corporation. Then Clark County commenced to languish, and now she is incumbered with debt instead of having money in her purse. The company still have property to be taxed over the river, a railroad, depots and rolling stock at least, at the Cascades, in the County of Skamania, which said county is sparsely settled and of a consequently economical turn, and its taxes being proportionately easy on companies and individuals.

Some brilliant mind, based on strategic principles, has at last viewed the "situation" with so much discerning ingenuity, that a proposition has been made to dispense with Skamania, which is a rough country any how, and the whole of its territory is to become part and parcel of the unfortunate county of Clarke, which is thus to have another chance at taxation of the property aforesaid up the river, and pay its debts, and fill its treasury, and can perhaps lay up something for a rainy day, by judicious taxation.

It is claimed by knowing ones that if the thing works well, all of the counties will, by a consolerate system of rotation, in company with Skamania, have the chance to multiply and replenish; but we don't credit that, and only allude to the proposition as a bit of strategy peculiar to war times.

[FROM DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 23.

NEW YORK, 22.—Hilton Head correspondence, dated 17th, says: Our 32 pound Parrotts have been got in position on our left, so as to command the Coosawhatchee bridge, and have shelled a rebel battery just below the bridge and in front of it. A battery of 12 pounder rifled howitzers from the naval brigade has been placed within 700 yards of the R. R. No train can run, and none dare attempt it. Gen. Foster asked Sherman about keeping in position at the Coosawhatchie to prevent reinforcements joining Hardee. Sherman told him to hold on where he was and prevent Hardee's men from running away, but let all go in who wanted to do so. He said he would open the lines and let 20,000 go in if the rebels wished it, as he was sure of capturing them all.

Herald's correspondent with Sherman, says a rebel officer captured at Ft. McAllister, who is acquainted in Savannah, says there are only ten days' provisions in the city. Hardee cannot possibly hold out 14 days.

Herald has additional details of Sherman's grand march through Georgia, and some important particulars regarding the present position before Savannah, and prospect of its early surrender. The city is poorly supplied with provisions, and is considerably burdened with feeding a surplus population of civilians, and a garrison of 20,000 or thereabouts. It will therefore be ultimately starved into submission, even if Hardee does not choose to give it up sooner.

There was a report recently in Sherman's army that Bragg was moving down from Augusta with 10,000 men to attack the besiegers in the rear.

Should he be foolhardy enough to do so, he will be summarily disposed of. The rebel papers have further references to the Union raid from Tennessee to Southern Virginia. The Richmond Examiner says it turns out to be an extensive and damaging one. The raiders are reported within eight miles of Saltville, but no account is yet furnished of their having captured the important works there.

Peace resolutions were recently defeated in the rebel Senate by 41 to 20 votes. The exchange with the rebels of ten thousand prisoners, which was commenced on the Savannah river and subsequently transferred to Charleston harbor, was completed at the latter point last Saturday, 17th. As this work is now completed, the firing of our own and the rebel batteries in Charleston harbor and vicinity, which was suspended during its continuance, will probably soon be resumed if it has not already.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 20th, says, the government has received official dispatches from Savannah dated yesterday when all was quiet.

The Richmond Dispatch says the situation in Tennessee is melancholy enough. It was a black day for the army of the Tennessee when Johnston lost his command—Hood was soon flanked, beaten and compelled to abandon Atlanta; he then stepped out of the way, and asked Sherman to walk through Georgia. He himself moved up into Tennessee, where he has now again got himself beaten, and this time we fear badly enough.

The Examiner also says that the campaign has concluded disastrously for us. We have no doubt of it.

A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated Washington, 22d, says Gen. Grant telegraphs the following: Richmond papers just in have an official dispatch from Wilmington, N. C., 21st, A. M., which says: The advance of the enemy's fleet arrived off that point during the previous night.—Over 30 steamers are now assembled, and more are following.

NASHVILLE, 22.—No official reports from the army at last accounts. Gen. Thomas was at Columbia on Duck river. A portion of the rebel army had crossed the river, and were proceeding southward. The entire country around Nashville is filled with deserters from the rebel army, many of whom are constantly coming in, voluntarily, or otherwise. Hood's army is said by deserters and prisoners to be in a deplorable condition, and their utter extermination is probable. The weather is very cold.

NEW YORK, 22.—Herald has details of Sherman's grand march through Georgia. His army moved 300 miles, devastating 42 counties, capturing 4,000 prisoners, 10,000 negroes, 15,000 horses, and 30 pieces artillery. He lost not a gun. Our entire casualties were only about 500 prisoners and stragglers, and 3 or 400 killed or wounded, including the loss at Fort McAllister.

Kilpatrick defeated Wheeler in a skirmish near Macon, and could easily have taken the city had Sherman desired it. The rebel resistance at Oconee caused but a few hours delay at Griswoldville where the rebels are reported as having repulsed one of our brigades. Wolcott's division of the 15th corps defeated three rebel brigades under Gen. Phillips, we losing 37 and the rebels nearly 400. The rebel militia stood only 15 minutes, though the battle lasted four hours, our forces constantly following up the flying foe. There was not a serious battle during the whole march. Our cavalry was not any time repulsed, nor was Kilpatrick hurt. He had several small fights, but still wears the same hat with which he started from Atlanta.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Columbia brings Havana dates to the 17th. The steamer Alexandria now called the May, had been seized at Nassau for violating the neutrality laws, being an armed vessel. She has probably been released.

Lincoln's message was criticized unfavorably by the Diario.

The Houston, Texas, Telegraph announces officially the seizure of the United States steamer Seward while on her way to New Orleans from Santiago on the 17th of November. The English blockade running schooner Alabama was captured off Galveston, Dec. 7th. At that time eight vessels were blockading Galveston.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The Government has received a dispatch from Thomas, dated Nashville, Dec. 21st, announcing that Gen. McCook overtook the rebel Gen. Lyon December 17th, at Ashbyville, and after a sharp battle defeated and routed him, killing a number of his men and capturing one gun. Thomas also announces that a portion of Lyon's forces was attacked and routed at Hopkinsville on the 18th.

CAIRO, Dec. 22.—We have New Orleans dates to the 15th. The transport Clinton from Galveston, has arrived at New Orleans with 342 exchanged prisoners from Camp Grace, Texas. The men who were in the most wretched condition have been supplied with articles necessary for their comfort by the Agents of the Sanitary Commission.

A late Matamoras paper states that reinforcements had arrived at Brazos Santiago, swelling our force there to 2,000, 1,500 of whom are negroes. The rebel make frequent sallies from Brownsville, which is now fortified, and have numerous skirmishes with the Federal troops.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The Republican says: The Government has received a dispatch from Gen. Grant at City Point, announcing that the Richmond papers of yesterday, the 22d, contained an official dispatch from Gen. Bragg to Jefferson Davis dated Fort Fisher, New Inlet, North Carolina, Dec. 21st, as follows: The entire fleet of the enemy is in sight but cannot operate. The weather continues bad. We are are able to hold, Wilmington.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The Times' special dispatch dated Franklin, Tennessee, December 22d says: The rebels' retreat from Franklin to Duck River beggars all description. Hood told his corps commanders to get off the best way they could with their commands. The rebel army is now beyond Columbia. The Rail Road is now but little impaired. The trains run to Spring Hill. Telegraphic communication is all right in all directions. Johnsonville is not destroyed. The rebel loss during the campaign amounts to 17,000 men, 51 cannon and 18 general officers. The number killed at Franklin was 14,00; the wounded 3,800 and 1,000 taken prisoners. Before Nashville and on their retreat to Columbia, the rebels had 300 killed and wounded and 8,000 made prisoners. The Union loss at Franklin was 2,000 and before Nashville, less than 4,000.

The Union loss will not exceed 7,000, with two Generals slightly wounded. Hood has pontoons above the shoals on the Tennessee river where our gunboats cannot reach them. Hood marched on Franklin with 40,000 men and 65 pieces of artillery. He will have lost nearly twenty thousand men.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 23.—A mail train on the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad broke through a bridge at Hudson this morning and six men were killed. No particulars.

Professor Agassiz, in the Atlantic Monthly, comes to the conclusion that North America was at one time covered with ice a mile thick. The proof is that the slopes of the Alleghany range of mountains are glazier worn to the very top, except a few points which were above the level of the icy mass.

"Let the rebels sing their 'Jubal Early'—we will sing our Jubilate." On the same topic a contemporary says, that "this is the year of Jubal E."

The income of the California Branch of the United States Sanitary Commission is now about $1,000 per day, from Soldiers' Aid Societies in different parts of the State. There are over 200 Societies in operation.

The Appeal says: It has been estimated that the saving to farmers in California by the destruction of small game in the floods of '61 and '62, more than paid for all the damage done by the overflow. The present high water is doing this good and but little damage.

It is said that a lady is best dressed when one cannot remember what she wore; and, according to that interpretation, a friend of ours, a great traveler, thinks that an African princess that he once saw must be the best dressed woman that ever lived, for he cannot remember that she wore anything in particular.

The Emperor Maximilian, of Mexico, has published a decree, declaring that in the event of his death, or of any other accident which might render it impossible for him to govern, the Empress shall be invested with the regency of the Empire. The Mexicans will have something to say about that.

The 42d Massachusetts regiment left for home lately, their time having expired. In a brief address from President Lincoln to the regiment he alluded to the change in Maryland since the first regiment from Massachusetts passed through it en route for the war. The returning regiment, he said, will now pass through "free Maryland."

The New York Tribune says there is no crime in the history of human wickedness to be compared, with the infamy of digging up the dead soldiers of the Union from their martyr graves in Virginia, and making them vote against the cause which they died to sustain.

There is this difference between these two temporal blessings, health and money. Money is the most envied, but the least enjoyed. Health is the most enjoyed but the least envied, and this superiority of the latter is still more obvious when we reflect that the poorest man would not part with health for money, but that the richest would gladly part with all their money for the possession of good health.

Some of the Japanese Daimios are still continuing an aggressive policy against all foreigners. Thus the American steamer Monitor, which left Hakodadi on the 3d of July for Nagasaki and being short of fuel ran into a large bay in the territory of the Prince of Nagato, was treacherously fired upon by the Prince's batteries. Fortunately she was not injured, but inflicted a severe punishment upon the Japanese.

The high price of raw cotton has made that substance too costly for the manufacture of twine, and the ingenuity of manufacturers have been tasked to find a substitute for it. After many trials and experiments, it has been discovered at last that Manilla paper affords the material for a twine, combining all the good qualities of cotton twine with greater cheapness. It is twisted into a line that is neat, smooth, strong, pliable and excellent in all respects if kept dry.

THE CHINESE REBELLION.—The fearful rebellion which has raged for twelve years in China, says an Eastern exchange, seem to have been brought to an end by the capture of Nankin. The town had endured a long siege. The palace of Tien Wang, the leader of the rebellion, was found burned to the ground, and it is believed that this claimant of divine honors and of the imperial throne lies buried in its ruins. The most important military chief among the revolutionists, Chung Wung, was captured with the city. Upon entering Nankin, it was found that utter desolation prevailed within its walls. The main thoroughfares were lined with charred ruins, and the side thoroughfares were covered with a growth of jungle four feet high. Unburied bodies were everywhere scattered about. The number of these corpses is estimated by European witnesses at nearly 10,000. This stupendous insurrection had reduced the once populous and opulent city to a wilderness of empty houses.

ACAPULCO.—Passengers per Golden City from Acapulco report the greatest distress and alarm prevailing there in consequence of the disastrous defeat of the French forces endeavoring to reach that part, by General Alvarez. The French commandant had given notice that he would abandon the city within two weeks, and everybody owing allegiance to the empire was flying for safety elsewhere. Some of them came to San Francisco by this steamer. They say the cause of the empire is losing ground and think the whole Pacific coast will be abandoned.—Appeal.

ELECTORAL VOTE OF CALIFORNIA.—J. G. McCallum, of El Dorado, one of the State Presidential Electors, has been chosen to carry the electoral vote of California to Washington.

In the Washington Territory Legislature Mr. Brown, of Walla Walla, offered the following "Memorial in relation to a Branch Mint at Dalles, Oregon:"

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress, assembled: Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington, respectfully beg leave to present to your consideration the following preamble and prayer:

Whereas, Congress did, at the session of the years 1863 and 1864, enact a law providing for the erection and establishment of a United States Branch Mint at Dalles, Wasco county, Oregon;

And whereas, rich and extensive fields of gold and silver are being constantly discovered and developed in the Territories of Montana, Idaho and Washington, which fully justify the belief that the mines embraced in these Territories are destined to produce a greater amount of gold and silver than the entire remaining portion of the Pacific coast.

And whereas, the transportation of the precious metals produced in these Territories to the Branch Mint at San Francisco, is attended with great danger, loss of time and expense; the high rates of express charges being ruinous to both the mining and mercantile community, thereby compelling the miner to sell his dust at a heavy discount on its intrinsic value.

And whereas, the aforesaid city of Dalles is situated at a point where all the roads leading to the different mining districts in Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho Territories concentrate, thereby rendering the said city more accessible, eligible and convenient than any other place in the State of Oregon;

And whereas, it sometimes happens that during severe winters the lower Columbia river is closed and the Cascade mountains practically impassible, thereby suspending communication and preventing travel below Dalles, while the said city can be reached by land travel from the mining districts at all seasons of the year; all of which facts, in the opinion of your memorialists, confirm the wisdom of your choice in the selection of the said city of Dalles as the most advantageous place for the location of a Branch Mint.

And whereas, powerful and persistent efforts are being made by certain parties to effect a repeal of the law locating the said Branch Mint at Dalles, and to establish it at Portland, Oregon; which purpose, if accomplished, will prove a serious detriment and disadvantage to the entire population of Eastern Oregon, and the Territories of Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Therefore, your memorialists respectfully and earnestly pray that your honorable body will immediately appoint commissioners for the erection and establishment of the Branch Mint at Dalles, Wasco county, Oregon, and that measures be adopted to finish and put it into practical operation at the earliest period of time possible.

And your memorialists, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c., &c.

Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Washington, That the Secretary of the Territory be requested to immediately transmit a certified copy of the foregoing memorial to our Delegate in Congress, and that he be and is hereby instructed to lay the same before Congress, and to use his influence to secure the accomplishment of the prayer thereof.

The Memorial passed.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—The Executive Committee of the Christian Commission had a meeting on Friday evening at the house of the President—Rev. G. H. Atkinson, at which time and place the following resolutions were passed unanimously:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee are very grateful to Rev. Mr. Mingins for his kindness in visiting Oregon, and his very efficient services in presenting the practical working of the christian commission, and we hereby tender him our hearty thanks.

Resolved, That we feel deeply interested in this cause and advise, that he return to this state early next summer and visit the mining regions of Oregon, Idaho and Washington; by so doing we believe it will be of great service to the commission.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our thanks to the California Stage Company and all the steamboat companies, for their kindness in passing Rev. Mr. Mingins over their respective lines free of charge; also, for the kind and free facilities extended to the Commission by the Telegraph Company.

Resolved, That the foregoing be published in the daily Oregonian.

DIED.

On the 13th of December, A. D. 1864, at his residence in Washington county, Oregon, of palsy, Benjamin Cornelius, Senior.

Mr. Cornelius was a native of Kentucky, born February 9th, 1802. He emigrated to Missouri and from Missouri to Oregon in 1845, and settled in Washington county, where he resided until his death. He exerted a controlling influence in the community where he lived. His religion was that of unconditional salvation, or the final happiness of all the race of man. In this faith he lived until some months before his death, when, by the grace of God, he was enabled to see his true condition. He renounced his former faith, embraced his Redeemer and became personally identified and deeply interested in his Savior. His affliction was almost without a parallel, yet he bore it with Christian patience. He has passed over Jordan and entered that spiritual Canaan of which he loved to converse. He has left a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn the loss of one so much loved.
